To the Most Honourable
Charles Howard, Earl of Surrey,
Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum
of the West Riding in the County of York,
and of the City of York, & County of the same,
Deputy Earl Marshal of England, and One of the Lords Commissioners
of His Majestys Treasury
This MAP of the COUNTY of CUMBERLAND,
(Surveyed in 1770 & 1771, by Thomas Donald.)
Is most humbly Inscribed by His Lordships most Obedient and obliged humble Servants
Joseph Hodskinson & Thomas Donald.

EXPLANATION

Market Towns in Capitals, as PENRITH.
Parishes in Print, as Dean.
Churches or Chapels.
Turnpike & Cross Roads.
Rivers & Becks.
Sand Banks dry every Tide.
Sand Banks dry with Spring Tides only.
Sand Banks never dry.
Direction of the Stream of Flood Tide.
Anchoring Places.
The Figures in the Sea shew the least Depth in Fathoms, at low Water Spring Tides.
The Roman Figures shew the Time of High Water on the Full & Change of the Moon.
The Figures inverted thus (22/24) shew that Spring Tides rise 24 Feet & Neap Tides 14.
The Figures on the Roads thus C to K 11.7.24 signify that from the Market Cross Cockermouth to the Market Cross in Keswick is 11 Miles 7 Furlongs and 24 Poles.

Scale of Statute Miles.

London, Published Sept.r 1.st 1774 by J. Hodskinson & T. Donald, N.o 35 Arundel Street, Strand.

2010 Ministerio de Cultura